
Algorics' CEO Nithiya Ananthakrishnan named in PharmaVOICE 100 2017 – 100 most inspiring people in the life sciences industry

Houston, TX, USA, For Immediate Release: 1 August, 2017.

Algorics, a provider of clinical analytics solutions and software for the global life sciences industry, today announced that Algorics' CEO Nithiya Ananthakrishnan has been named by PharmaVOICE as one of the 100 most influential and inspirational leaders in the life sciences industry.

Nithiya was selected in specific recognition of his entrepreneurial spirit, belief in positive change, respect for innovation and his investment in people and technologies.

"We are delighted that Nithiya has been recognised in this year's PharmaVOICE 100", commented Rob Nichols, Chief Commercial Officer, Algorics. "We are particularly proud that PharmaVOICE have recognised Nithiya for his mentoring, for which he is admired widely within the Algorics team, and his passion for change both at work and in his personal life as chair of the SMILE Welfare Foundation."

The annual PharmaVOICE 100 list honours a select group of the most inspirational, motivational, and transformative individuals throughout the life sciences industry. These individuals illustrate what it means to think bigger, do more, and lead with passion to address industry challenges and trends.
